

Davon L. Robinson

June 22, 1985 - July 1, 2016

DAVON LEON ROBINSON, (affectionately known as Wooda) son of Yvette King and Richard Robinson [r., was born on June 22, 1985 in Baltimore Md.

On July 1, 2016 he was called home.

Wooda received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and later obtained his GED certificate.

Wooda was funny with his corny jokes, to know him was to LOVE him.

Wooda just knew he was a fashion critic/model, he had a swag all of his own.

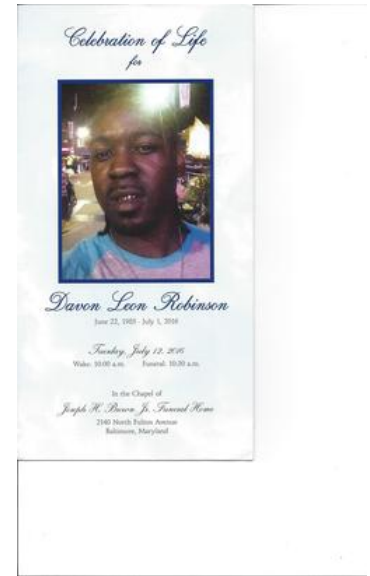

He enjoyed spending quality time with his girls whom he loved dearly. He was the kind of dad that took pride in grooming his girls. We often called him Mr.

MOM. Wooda enjoyed his grandmothers cooking and family gatherings, often asking "who is making my plate"? He loved to ride dirt bikes and four wheeler's which he taught his cousins how to ride. His favorite artist was Lil Boosie.

Wooda had a smile like no other and a tight pocket that a mouse couldn't get in, but Wooda had a heart of gold.

Wooda leaves to mourn: his mother, Yvette King; father, Richard Robinson Jr. (Peanut); devoted grandparents, Creedel and Richard Robinson Sr. and grandmother, Barbara King; three lovely daughters, Tacori Robinson, Kendall Robinson and Kylie Robinson; four brothers, Rasheed Robinson, Rashad Robinson, Richard Robinson IV, Duane Macklin; four sisters, Sabrina Robinson, Richeira Robinson, Rickeira Robinson, Takia King; two favorite aunts, La Juan Robinson and Michele Coleman; five great-aunts; devoted girlfriend, Keke; a special friend, Cenee Barnes; and a host of aunts, uncle, cousins, and friends.

Born: June 22, 1985
Death: July 1, 2016